

Call for Workshop Application for Women in Medicine

How to Write a Scientific Grant Application?

In the course participants will...

- be helped to get from an idea in the mind to a research question on paper
- understand the main components of a grant application
- write a relevant and concise application abstract
- appreciate what a reviewer expects from a grant application
- improve the readability, credibility and general quality of an application

With:

Prof. Dr. David Nadal, Head Pediatric Infectious Diseases, Director Children's Research Center (CRC); John Dixon, FRCS MBA
Libra Medical Communications
Training

Date, time and place:

April 15th, 09:00 – 17:30h
Faculty of Medicine UZH, room to be announced

Who can Apply?

Women physician scientists pract. med./Dr. med./MD/Ph.D. studying/employed at the University of Zurich or a Zurich University Hospital

Application:

Please send us your CV and a motivation letter (1 page max.) explaining why you would like to attend (documents in English) at fillingthegap@dekmed.uzh.ch

Deadline: March 15th

Conditions:

30 participants max. You will be informed if you can attend by March 31st the latest. The course is free of charge. If you cancel the course, you will have to pay a fee of CHF 150.-