

Business, Conflict & Human Rights Course – Program, 23–25 November 2017

		Day 1, Thu, 23.11.2016	Day 2, Fri, 24.11.2016	Day 3, Sat, 25.11.2016
Morning		Welcome & check-in	Check-in & Review	Check-in & Review
	Key Topic	Introduction to course topic	Strategies and measures	Monitoring and evaluation
8h30-12h30, (30' break)	Learning Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Participants become familiar with current concepts, international standards and debates on business and human rights and Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)</li> <li>- Participants are able to relate case studies to international standards and debates</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Participants understand the importance of setting up pertinent regulations, initiatives, policies, and procedures for responsible business practices</li> <li>- Participants learn how to develop adequate action plans for business, civil society and government to foster responsible business</li> <li>- Participants are familiarized with different roles and responsibilities of stakeholder groups</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Participants are familiarized with and know how to apply monitoring and evaluation techniques</li> <li>- Remaining open questions are addressed</li> </ul>
	Methodology	Input, discussion, peer exchange	Input, discussion, case study, group work	Input, Discussion, peer exchange, individual work
Lunch
Afternoon	Key Topic	Context and impact analysis	Implementation	Individual action plans
14h00-17h30, (30' break)	Learning Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Participants get to know key tools &amp; techniques of conflict, stakeholder &amp; HR risk/impact analysis</li> <li>- Participants are able to map and analyse stakeholder groups</li> <li>- Participants understand different perspectives of business, civil society and government</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Participants learn how to address the key implementation challenges faced by business, civil society and government</li> <li>- Participants become familiar with interactions between stakeholder groups</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Participants develop an action plan tailored to their own professional situation based on course learnings</li> </ul>
	Methodology	Expert inputs, discussion, case study, group work	Expert inputs, discussion, case study, role play	Expert inputs, individual work, discussion